

Historic Landmark Commission Board Re-Appointment — Peter L. Ashdown Appointment — Warren Knight Lloyd

INTRODUCTION:

Mayor Anderson is recommending Peter L. Ashdown, resident of District 3, to be re-appointed for a term extending through July 14, 2007 and Warren Knight Lloyd, a resident of District 6 be appointed to serve a term extending through July 14, 2008. Mr. Lloyd will be replacing Wayne Gordon, whose term has expired.

APPLICANT INFORMATION:

Mr. Peter L. Ashdown resides at 633 North 200 West. Mr. Ashdown is the President and founder of X Mission Internet Service a downtown business since 1993. Mr. Ashdown would like to continue his commitment towards preserving Salt Lake City's cultural heritage.

Mr. Warren Knight Lloyd resides at 911 Military Drive. Mr. Lloyd is the firm principal and CEO of Lloyd Architects PC. Mr. Lloyd directs architecture and planning services for a five person office in Salt Lake City and satellite in Seattle, WA. Projects completed include historic building renovations and preservation, multi-family housing, mixed-use planning and residential design. Mr. Lloyd feels that these committees affect change or preservation of Salt Lake neighborhoods and the quality of living and would like to be more a part of the changes.

RESPONSE DEADLINE:

If you have any objection to this appointment, please let Vicki know by 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday April 27, 2005.

CURRENT BOARD COMPOSITION:

According to City ordinance, the Historic Landmark Commission "shall consist of not less than nine nor more than fifteen voting members." In part, the Salt Lake City Code states that each voting member "shall be a resident of the City interested in preservation and knowledgeable about the heritage of the City." City code also requires members be selected to provide representation from the following groups of experts and interested parties: (a) a licensed architect representing the American Institute of Architects; (b) a member representing the Utah Historical Society; (c) a member representing the Utah Heritage Foundation; (d) six citizens at large; and (e) a member representing each historic district in the City.

Current members of the Historic Landmark Commission include Pete R. Ashdown, Exchange Place Representative, District 3; Paula Carl, District 5; Scott Christensen, at-large, District 3; David Fitzsimmons, District 5; Wayne Gordon, III, Architect, District 4; Noreen Hammond Heid, Center City, District 4; William R. Littig, Avenues, District 3; Vicki Mickelsen, University Historic, District 4; Oktai Parvaz, at-large, District 4; Robert W. Payne, Utah State Historical Society, District 5; Amy Rowland, Capitol Hill, District 3; Soren Simonsen, Utah Heritage Foundation, District 7; Lee White, South Temple, District 3; Mark Wilson, at large, District 3; and Robert Young, at-large, District 3;.

HLC STRUCTURE:

The mission of the Historic Landmark Commission is to preserve buildings of historic and architectural significance, encourage proper development in areas adjacent to historic districts, safeguard the City's heritage by protecting landmarks, protect and enhance the attraction of the City's historic landmarks for tourists and visitors, and increase public awareness of historic preservation.