
MEMORANDUM

DATE: June 10, 2005
TO: City Council Members
FROM: Russell Weeks
RE: Proposed Campaign Financing Disclosure Revisions
CC: Cindy Gust-Jenson, Rocky Fluhart, Ed Rutan, Ken Cowley, Gary Mumford, Boyd Ferguson, Sonya Kintaro

This memorandum pertains to proposed changes to sections of City Code Chapter 2.46 relating to campaign financing disclosure. The City Council discussed the amendments at a June 9 briefing.

OPTIONS

Given the direction the City Council appeared to take June 9, the Council has two options.

The City Council could:

- Adopt the version of the proposed amendments that it appeared to support on June 9.
- Amend the version further if a Council Member would like to amend it.

POTENTIAL MOTIONS

- I move that the City Council adopt the ordinance amending certain section of City Code Chapter 2.46, relating to campaign finance disclosure.
- I move that the City Council adopt the ordinance amending certain section of City Code Chapter 2.46, relating to campaign finance disclosure with the following amendments (any amendment a City Council may wish to make.)

BACKGROUND/DISCUSSION

At the City Council briefing session on June 9 the City Council indicated that it favored the second of two versions of proposed amendments to City Code Chapter 2.46. That version is in City Council packets for the Council's meeting June 14. As indicated in the "Options" and "Potential Motions" sections of this memorandum, Council Members may amend the version, but Council Members appeared to be satisfied with the second version of the proposed ordinance at the June 9 discussion.

As indicated in a City Council staff memorandum dated June 7, the proposed amendments stem from a variety of sources. A main source was a series of amendments proposed earlier this year by the City Attorney's Office and the City Recorder's Office to bring the City Code into conformance with Utah law. The City Council adopted the amendments May 12 as part of a package of amendments that included raising the amount of money a person could donate to a City Council or mayoral candidate. The package also included a section prohibiting candidates from converting campaign contributions for personal use. On May 26 Mayor Ross Anderson vetoed the section of the ordinance the City Council adopted on May 12 that increased the amount of money someone could donate to a City Council or mayoral candidate. An editorial in The Salt Lake Tribune also argued against the increase. In addition, City Council Members received a letter from Deseret News Editor Rick Hall that requested three changes: the reinstatement of a February date for candidates to report campaign contributions, requiring mayoral candidates as well as City Council candidates to report campaign contribution of more than $500, and "adding a provision that, in cases of donations by check, the name of the person who signed the check also be identified, if it differs from the name printed on the check." Finally, City Council Member David Buhler asked the City Attorney's Office to provide a definition of a "coordinated expenditure" to address the use of candidates' advertising on media such as billboards or moving vehicles.

The second version the City Council forwarded for its formal consideration does not include the following language in the section proposed to amend the current Section 2.46.090 titled Financial Reporting (Pages 7-9, clean copy): "For each contribution in excess of fifty dollars ($50) made by check in which the name printed on the check differs from the name of the person signing the check, the name of the person signing the check" would be identified.

The proposed ordinance also would:

- Continue the current aggregate contribution limits of $1,500 for City Council candidates and $7,500 for mayoral candidates.
- Enact the new sections of the proposed ordinances including the prohibition against candidates converting campaign contributions for personal use that the City Council originally considered on May 12.
- Reinstatement a February date for candidates to report campaign contributions.
- Enact a requirement that mayoral candidates as well as City Council candidates report campaign contributions of more than $500.
- Enact a definition of "coordinated expenditure."

Under the proposed ordinance amendments, the term "coordinated expenditure" would mean:

"... Except as provided in the next sentence, an expenditure made by any person in cooperation, consultation, or concert, with, or at the request or suggestion of, a candidate, his or her personal campaign committee, or their agents. Coordinated expenditures include coordinated advertising on billboards and on taxi cabs, but does not include a lawn sign, a sign on residential property, a bumper sticker, a handheld sign, or a sign in a part of a building that is not normally used for commercial advertising by a third party. An in-kind coordinated expenditure shall be valued at the usual and normal value of such expenditure, such as the value of the use of the advertising space on a billboard or taxi cab."
