RE: Petition to assign an honorary name of "Karl Malone Drive" to the portion of 100 South Street between 300 and 400 West

- A. On February 6, 2006, the Mayor, at the request of Denis Haslam, President of the Utah Jazz, initiated a petition to honor former Utah Jazz player Karl Malone, with an honorary street name on the street bordering the south side of the Delta Center, home of the Utah Jazz.
 - 1. The petition is to assign the honorary name "Karl Malone Drive" to 100 South between 300 and 400 West.
 - 2. The Utah Jazz are proposing to honor Karl Malone for his contribution to sports history in Salt Lake City and the state of Utah.
 - 3. 300 West currently bears the honorary name of "John Stockton Drive."
- B. The Council Chair recommended that the City check with the Japanese Churches on 200-300 block of 100 South to assure that they are aware of this proposal and to get their feedback. This request was made of the Administration, and Council staff has also made contact. We will forward to the Council any comments received.
- C. The applicable Master Plans do not specifically address the issue of honorary name changes. The vision statement of the Final Report of the Salt Lake City Futures Commission states that Salt Lake City "Embraces pluralism and encourages diversity in population, urban design, and cultural expression.
- D. The Planning Division sent notice to all property owners potentially affected by the name change, on February 6, 2006, as well as interested parties and all Community Council Chairs.
- E. The Planning Division held an open house regarding the issue on February 13, 2006. No comments were received at the open house, but the proposal received unanimous support from the affected property owners.
- F. Planning, Engineering, Property Management, Transportation, Public Utilities, Police and Fire have all reviewed the petition and have voiced no objections regarding the petition.

- G. The City Attorney's office has prepared a resolution for Council consideration to assign the honorary name of "Karl Malone Drive" on 100 South between 300 and 400 West.

- H. The City does not currently have a written policy addressing the honorary naming of streets and criteria to meet when requesting an honorary street name. A policy with a criteria list was adopted in the mid 1980s, but was rescinded by the Corradini Administration. Given the recent level of interest, the Council may wish to develop a policy, or request that the Administration prepare a draft policy.

RE: Petition 400-06-04: Petition initiated by Mayor Anderson to honor former Utah Jazz player Karl Malone by adding the honorary name of "Karl Malone Drive" to the portion of 100 South Street located between 300 and 400 West Streets.

STAFF CONTACT: Janice Lew, Principal Planner, at 535-7625 or janice.lew@slcgov.com

RECOMMENDATION: That the City Council adopt the resolution

DOCUMENT TYPE: Resolution

BUDGET IMPACT: None. The cost of new street signs and their installation will be at the expense of the Utah Jazz organization.

DISCUSSION:

Issue Origin: Over the years, City Council has approved various honorary street name changes. On February 6, 2006, at the request of Dennis Haslam, President of the Utah Jazz, Mayor Anderson initiated a petition to honor former Utah Jazz player Karl Malone, because of his contribution to sports history in Salt Lake City and the State of Utah, by adding the honorary name of "Karl Malone Drive" to 100 South Street between 300 and 400 West Streets.

Analysis: The honorary street name change proposal has been reviewed by the necessary City Divisions and Departments including Planning, Engineering, Property Management, Transportation, Public Utilities, Police, and Fire (see attached review responses in "Exhibit 5: Departmental and Public Comment"). The City Attorney's Office has prepared and approved the necessary resolution (see "Exhibit 2: Resolution"). Honorary street name changes are purely honorific and will have no effect on certified mailing addresses, business listings in any telephone directory, or on private business signs.

Master Plan Considerations: The Salt Lake City Downtown Plan (1995) signifies the Administration's efforts to "establish Downtown as a well-developed, desirable and diverse activity center serving the needs of a sizable 24-hour population.” A guiding principle presented by the Gateway Specific Plan (1998) is to “encourage a mix of uses with diversity in jobs, residents, and visitors that balances neighborhood needs, has a vital street life and character, and results in a thriving local economy. The applicable Master Plans, however, do not specifically address the issue of honorary street name changes. The vision statement of the Final Report of the Salt Lake City Futures Commission states that Salt Lake City “Embraces pluralism and encourages diversity in population, urban design, and cultural expression.”

PUBLIC PROCESS:

On February 6, 2006, the Planning Division sent notice of a February 13, 2006 Open House to all Community Council Chairs, affected property owners, and interested parties of the proposed name change. The notice was also displayed on the City’s Official Web page. No comments opposing the proposed honorary name change were received by the Planning Division. The proposal received unanimous support from the affected property owners (see “Exhibit 7: Original Petition” for the signatures of abutting property owners).

The City Council is the decision-making authority on any changes to a designation of a street name including official and honorary changes. Consideration by the Planning Commission is not required.

All:

After this is approved, when you turn left from northbound 300 West to westbound 100 South or turning right from southbound 300 West to westbound 100 South; you will be driving "Stockton to Malone"!

Please keep in mind when processing this petition that it is for a dual or honorary name, not a street name change. That makes it very straightforward to process and doesn't require anyone to change their mailing address.

Al, they are going to want to put the signs up for the March 23 dedication of Karl's statue. The honorary name will be "Karl Malone Drive." The intersections of 100 South with both 300 West and 400 West will need signs.

SLC Engineering does not have a strong objection except to say that property owners on 100 South between 300 and 400 West may be confused as to what their address will be after the honorary name change occurs.

NOTICE OF OPEN HOUSE

Mayor Anderson has initiated Petition No. 400-06-04 requesting approval for an honorary street name change to allow the portion of 100 South between 300 and 400 West to have the honorary name of Karl Malone Drive.

Because this petition is an "honorary" street name change, the words "Karl Malone Drive" will be added to the 100 South Street signs located between 300 and 400 West. The street name change is purely honorific and will not have any effect on certified or mailing address, business listings in any telephone directory, or private business signs. The only changes will occur on the street signage along this stretch of 100 South. The street signs will be changed to read:

100 South
Karl Malone Drive

The Planning Staff would like to receive your input regarding this proposal and invites you to a public open house. The Public Open House is to help determine the level of community support and to solicit any comments you may have. The open house will be held:

Monday, February 13, 2006
Salt Lake City County Building
451 South State Street
Room 118
4:30 and 6:00 P.M.

Since it is very difficult for us to inform all interested parties about this request, we would appreciate your discussing this matter with your neighbors and informing them of the open house.

The City Council will hold a public hearing prior to making a decision regarding the honorary street name designation.

If you have any questions or would like to submit written comments on this issue, please contact Janice Lew at (535-7625) or email at janice.lew@slcgov.com. The deadline for receiving comments is Tuesday, February 14, 2006.

Re: Petition to Rename a Portion of 100 South Street

On behalf of the Utah Jazz, I am initiating a petition requesting that the City Council approve an honorary street name change to honor former Utah Jazz player Karl Malone. The request includes adding an honorary name of Karl Malone Drive to the portion of 100 South Street between 300 and 400 West Streets.

Karl Malone was drafted by the Utah Jazz in 1985, where he and John Stockton together made Utah sports history, garnering many national honors and awards. Together, their achievements helped the Delta Center become a major entertainment center in Downtown Salt Lake City. As a result of Mr. Malone's achievements on the basketball court, Salt Lake City is known internationally in a very positive way. A section of 300 West was previously renamed to honor John Stockton; adding Karl Malone's name to a portion of 100 South will create a literal and symbolic intersection honoring their joint achievements.

Over the years, the City Council has approved various honorary street name changes. To that end, please direct the Planning Division to process this petition so that it can be reviewed by the City Council by March 14, 2006.

Re: Re-naming 100 South Street

Dear Mayor Anderson,

This letter follows our meeting yesterday wherein we discussed my petition on behalf of the Utah Jazz that Salt Lake City consider adding the name "Karl Malone Drive" to 100 South Street in Salt Lake City where it intersects with "John Stockton Drive" at 300 West. This would include the southeast corner of the Delta Center and go for one block west of that intersection to 400 West.

As we discussed, Karl Malone was drafted by the Utah Jazz in 1985 where he and John Stockton went on to make sports history for Salt Lake City and the State of Utah. Their achievements are marked in sports history by many honors and awards including being named as two of the fifty best players of all time. Of course, while both were outstanding athletes in their own right, much of their personal successes were realized by playing together for eighteen seasons with the Utah Jazz. Karl Malone's achievements occurred at the Delta Center which became the center of entertainment in 1991. As a result of Karl's achievements on the court at the Delta Center, he, John Stockton, the Utah Jazz, and to a great degree, Salt Lake City are known worldwide in a very positive way.

In light of this relationship between the City, Karl Malone, John Stockton and Utah Jazz, we appreciate your interest in honoring Karl Malone by adding his name to 100 South Street at this location. In doing so, the City will meaningfully recognize, as many standing at the intersection of Stockton to Malone Drives surely will, that they represent a special part of Salt Lake City and Utah Jazz history.

If there is any further process, procedure, or information that may be needed, please call me anytime. We will be happy to reimburse the City for the cost of the new signs.

Very truly yours,

HONORARY STREET NAME CHANGE OF 100 SOUTH
(Between 300 W to 400 W) TO KARL MALONE DR.

Petition No. 400-06-04

By Larry H. Miller

Is requesting a street name change to add the name "Karl Malone Drive" to 100 South Street where it intersects with "John Stockton Drive" at 300 West. This would include the southeast corner of the Delta Center and go for one block west of that intersection to 400 West.
