

Historic Landmark Commission Board Appointment — J. Creed Haymond

INTRODUCTION:

Mayor Anderson is recommending J. Creed Haymond, resident of District 4, to be appointed for a term extending through July 14, 2007. Mr. Haymond will be replacing Vicki Mickelsen as the University Historic District Representative. Ms. Mickelsen has moved and has been reassigned as the member at large on this commission.

APPLICANT INFORMATION:

Mr. Haymond is self-employed as a haircutter and a landscape designer. He is active in the community and appreciates zoning and regulations regarding the growth and changes affecting his community. Mr. Haymond would like to be involved in keeping the neighborhood organized, beautiful and livable. Mr. Haymond has purchased and remodeled two homes in the East Central area and is living in the designated University Historic District.

RESPONSE DEADLINE:

If you have any objection to this appointment, please let Vicki know by 5:00 p.m. on Monday February 27, 2006.

CURRENT BOARD COMPOSITION:

According to City ordinance, the Historic Landmark Commission “shall consist of not less than nine nor more than fifteen voting members.” In part, the Salt Lake City Code states that each voting member “shall be a resident of the City interested in preservation and knowledgeable about the heritage of the City.” City code also requires members be selected to provide representation from the following groups of experts and interested parties: (a) a licensed architect representing the American Institute of Architects; (b) a member representing the Utah Historical Society; (c) a member representing the Utah Heritage Foundation; (d) six citizens at large; and (e) a member representing each historic district in the City.

Current members of the Historic Landmark Commission include Pete R. Ashdown, Exchange Place Representative, District 3; Paula Carl, District 5; Scott Christensen, at-large, District 3; David Fitzsimmons, District 5; Noreen Hammond Heid, Center City, District 4; William R. Littig, Avenues, District 3; Warren Lloyd, American Institute of Architects, District 6; Vicki Mickelsen, University Historic, District 4; Oktai Parvaz, at-large, District 4; Robert W. Payne, Utah State Historical Society, District 5; Amy Rowland, Capitol Hill, District 3; Soren Simonsen, Utah Heritage Foundation, District 7; Lee White, South Temple, District 3; Mark Wilson, at large, District 3; and Robert Young, at-large, District 3;.

HLC STRUCTURE:

The mission of the Historic Landmark Commission is to preserve buildings of historic and architectural significance, encourage proper development in areas adjacent to historic districts, safeguard the City’s heritage by protecting landmarks, protect and enhance the attraction of the City’s historic landmarks for tourists and visitors, and increase public awareness of historic preservation.