SUBJECT: Interlocal Agreement for Election Assistance Services from Salt Lake County

AFFECTED COUNCIL DISTRICTS: Citywide

STAFF REPORT BY: Gary Mumford and Jennifer Bruno

ADMINISTRATIVE DEPT. AND CONTACT PERSON: Management Services

UPDATED INFORMATION

Council Staff has been following up on questions raised regarding the Election Agreement with the County in the Council's July 6 work session. See the attached transmittal for detailed answers from the Administration.

One concern raised in the Council's briefing was regarding consolidation of the City's polling locations. The attached paperwork lists the polling locations that were eliminated and the polling locations that were added (for a net of 16 fewer polling locations). The Administration has indicated to Council Staff that they signed off on the polling locations with the County earlier in the year, so that the County could begin necessary preparations. Because voting machines are limited and have already been allocated, and because the identified facilities have already been investigated and confirmed, polling locations cannot be added at this point. The attached paperwork is for Council informational purposes. The Council may wish to give the Administration policy direction on polling locations in future elections.

Early voting was also raised as a concern in the Council's work session. The Administration has indicated that while the various community libraries are an option, they would need to have sufficient space (approximately 400 square feet) to host the early voting that could be secured after hours, and have sufficient electrical supply to support the voting machines. They have estimated that it would cost about $9,000 per location per election, not including site rental costs, for a total of $54,000 for each election. The Administration has not been able to confirm this space/security requirement at every City library, due to time constraints. If the Council would like the Administration to pursue this option, it can be further pursued.

The following information was provided for the Council's work session on July 6. It is provided again for your reference.

For many years, Salt Lake City has contracted for election services from the Salt Lake County Clerk's Office. Again the County is offering its election services, but at a significantly increased cost compared to prior municipal elections. The County's deadline for requesting its election services is July 16th. Since the City is not prepared to administer an election this year, Salt Lake City Administration is recommending that the City Council authorize the Mayor to sign the agreement for County election services. The Administration plans to follow up with the County to ensure that the cost is fair and allocated reasonably.

MATTERS AT ISSUE

Election administration has received a great deal of attention in the past several years. Salt Lake County has made numerous changes in its election processes. The County replaced its punch card machines with touch screen voting machines, doubled the number of poll workers at each location from three to six workers, and increased the amount of training required for poll workers. The proposed contract with the County Clerk's Office for election services is for $429,343, which includes $266,346 for costs of the County Clerk's Office and $162,997 for poll workers stipends, ballot printing and location rent stipend. In the past, the City paid approximately $175,000 for a city-wide punch card election.

Number of polling locations: The County Clerk's Office is recommending 69 polling locations, which is a reduction of 21 locations from Salt Lake City's past mayoral election. The County determined this recommendation based on historic voter turnout, parking lot capacity, and space available in each polling location for voting machines.

Poll workers' stipends and printing costs: Each polling location will have four judges, a manager, and a touch screen technician. The judges will receive a stipend of $120 for the primary election and $120 for the general election. The stipend includes attending a required three-hour training session. The manager and touch screen technician will receive a stipend of $220 per day and must attend two three-hour training sessions. A rent stipend of $50 is provided for use of the polling location. The cost for the stipends for each polling location is $970 for the primary election and $970 for the general election. The County Clerk calculates the cost of printing absentee and provisional ballots to be $9,501 for the primary election and $11,612 for the general election. The poll worker costs have substantially increased over prior municipal elections because previously three judges were all that were required and stipends were $65 per day. The County increased the stipend because of difficulty in recruiting competent poll workers and because of additional training required. Total poll worker and ballot printing costs are $162,997. These costs will be administered by the County on a reimbursement basis from the City.

Allocation of County election services: Some of the County Clerk's election expenses are proposed to be allocated based on the number of active voters and some costs are proposed to be allocated based on the number of polling locations. An active voter is defined as someone who has voted within the past four years. Salt Lake City has 97,710 active voters or 22.5% of active voters countywide. Those costs to be allocated based on active voters are staffing expenses, supplies (including postage and non-ballot printing), and vehicle and equipment expenses. Salt Lake City's portion of these costs is $219,090. Costs allocated based on the number of polling locations are delivery of voting equipment, equipment testing, and poll worker training. These costs for Salt Lake City are calculated by the County Clerk's Office to be $47,256. (See schedule attached to the contract for detail breakdown of Salt Lake City's costs.)

Deadline date: The County Clerk's Office stated that it needs sufficient time to gear up for the election including recruiting and training election judges. If the County has not received a signed contract from cities by July 16th, it “will assume that you are handling your primary election on your own.” The candidate filing period also ends on July 16th. The primary election will be held on September 11th.

Early voting, recounts, and audit of bond election: The County contract includes administration of early voting at the County Clerk’s Office and any recounts or audit relating to a bond election. The Administration is tentatively planning to have early voting at the City & County Building or at a nearby City facility.

State reimbursement: Governor Huntsman ordered the election on the school voucher referendum to be put to the voters at the general municipal election. According to the Utah League of Cities & Towns, cities and towns will be responsible for only the costs that had already been included in the municipal budgets. However, exactly how state funding will be allocated has not been finalized. Therefore, at this time the County Clerk’s Office is moving forward with the contracts for municipal elections as originally proposed before the voucher question was added to the ballot. The City’s contract price is $207,523 for the primary election and $221,820 for the general election.

Countywide bond possibility: The County Council may add a zoo bond to the ballot. If this is added, election costs of the County Clerk’s Office may be reallocated. Salt Lake City’s director of management services has written the County Clerk requesting that costs be reallocated relating to a possible zoo bond or other issues that are placed on the ballot. A reallocation of costs could ensure that city residents are not paying for election costs of the unincorporated county area.

Additional election costs of City Recorder’s Office: Salt Lake City is responsible for furnishing election system rovers. Each rover will be responsible to assist with set up of equipment at the voting locations on the day before the elections and to assist at polling locations on election days. Rovers will bring new equipment to a polling location to replace non-working equipment and respond to other needs as necessary. The County will provide training. Salt Lake City will need 12 rovers at a cost of $1,000 for each rover ($500 per election). Other Salt Lake City costs are included in the regular salaries of the City Recorder’s Office.

City budget for election services: Salt Lake City budgeted $300,000 for election costs which was an increase of $125,000 from the prior citywide election budget. At the time that the fiscal year 2007-08 budget was adopted, there was considerable uncertainty relating to election costs and relating to state reimbursement of the statewide voucher issue to be added to the ballot. The actual payment to the County for election services is usually not due until after the November election. If the Council approves the resolution authorizing the Mayor to enter into the interlocal agreement, the Council should likely be prepared to appropriate additional funds during the year by budget amendment if additional funding proves necessary.

OPTIONS:

There are still unanswered questions regarding how the state will reimburse election costs relating to adding the school voucher item to the ballot. However, since the City is not prepared to handle its own election and since the deadline for contracting with the County is July 16th, the Council may wish to approve the resolution authorizing the Mayor to contract with the County for election services with the understanding that more answers will be forthcoming.

The Administration will explore options for future election. In addition to touch screen ballots, current state law allows municipal elections to be conducted using paper ballots or optical scan ballots. Mail in ballots may be feasible, but this option would require the Legislature to approve a change. Salt Lake County will apparently not assist Salt Lake City if the City does not use electronic ballots. Possible changes to federal requirements may also impact future elections and their costs.

POTENTIAL MOTION:

If the Council decides to proceed with the contract with the County for election services, the Council may wish to consider the following motion.

["I move that the Council"] Adopt a resolution authorizing the Mayor to sign an Interlocal Agreement with Salt Lake County to administer election services for the 2007 municipal election.

DATE: July 13, 2007

At July 10, 2007 meeting of the City Council, several questions were raised about the consolidation of polling locations for the upcoming municipal and special elections.

Question 1: Which locations that were used in 2003 will be closed in 2007?

As mentioned in the meeting, the Salt Lake County Clerk is currently planning to have fewer locations for the upcoming municipal and special elections than there were for the previous election municipal election in 2003. In 2003, there were 85 polling locations city-wide; in 2007, there will be 69 locations, or 16 fewer than in 2003. The 2007 election environment is significantly different – electronic voting and the requirements of the Help America Vote Act (HAVA) have changed the landscape. Salt Lake City, along with other municipalities, advocated for legislation allowing for this reduction during the 2007 Utah Legislative session. This reduction is meant to align polling locations with the number of active voters, as defined by HAVA. Polling locations are determined by a number of factors, including active voters, access for the handicapped, ease of access, including adequate parking space, as well as expected turnout. The attached map shows a comparison of voting locations in 2003 and planned locations in 2007. The attached spreadsheet details the voting locations used in 2003 that will not be used in 2007, as well as new locations for this year's election.

Question 2: What would be the extra cost if all the locations were kept?

Of the 85 locations used in 2003, 39 have been eliminated and another 23 locations added, for a total of 69 locations. According to Salt Lake County officials, it would not be possible to add additional locations for the primary election. Locations would need to have been secured before this point and Salt Lake County does not believe they have the resources to secure those locations in time for the primary election. Salt Lake County officials told City staff that they may be able to secure additional locations prior to the General election. If the city were to add another 16 locations, the cost would be approximately $1,000 per location.

Question 3: What would be the cost to have early voting in all city libraries?

The current plan is to offer early voting opportunities at the Salt Lake County Complex as well as the City and County Building. According to Salt Lake County officials, if we were to offer early voting at libraries for 9 days (not including weekends), we would need access to a 20' X 20' secure room with adequate electrical support in order to secure electronic voting machines. It is not clear whether each library has this space to offer and would be able and willing to provide this space. If each location were able to provide space, it would cost approximately $9,000 per location per election to offer early voting at other locations. If we were to offer early voting at each of the City Library's 6 locations, it would cost approximately $54,000 for the primary and $54,000 for the general municipal election. In addition, we would likely need to pay a fee to each library for use of the space for this time period. If the Council is interested in pursuing this option, the Administration can explore the feasibility of each library location.

Council Transmittal Letter

Steve L. Fawcett for Lyn Creswell
To: Lyn Creswell, Chief Administrative Officer Date: June 27, 2007

From: Chris Meeker, Acting City Recorder Chris Meeker

Re: Authorizing the Mayor to sign an interlocal agreement with Salt Lake County Election Clerk to provide election service for the 2007 Municipal Election

Staff Contacts: Chris Meeker, Acting City Recorder, at 535-6223 or Chris.Meeker@slcgov.com.

Sonya Kintaro, Elections Coordinator, at 535-6225 or Sonya.Kintaro@slcgov.com

Recommendation: That the City Council hold a briefing and place the item on the formal agenda for action the same day

Document Type: Resolution authorizing the Mayor to sign an Interlocal Agreement with Salt Lake County to administer election services for the 2007 Municipal election.

Budget Impact: $429,342.64 from the General Fund to pay Salt Lake County to administer election services for the Municipal Election of 2007.

Background/Discussion In 2002, the US Congress passed the Help America Vote Act, which required that all states receiving federal funding for elections improve access for voters, replace their punch card election systems, improve voter education and poll worker training, and improve access for voters with disabilities. Salt Lake County responded and made changes to the election process which have increased the cost of administering an election significantly. The votamatic punch card machine was replaced with new touch screen voting machines. This change prompted the need for more poll workers at each voting location and more training for each worker.

In an analysis of advantages and disadvantages by Salt Lake City staff presented to the City Council on May 15, 2007, the use of the electronic ballots was found to be the most economical and timely of the options for the 2007 municipal election.

 - (e) No separate legal entity is created by the terms of this Agreement. To the extent that this Agreement requires administration other than as set forth herein, it shall be administered by the City Recorder of the City and the County Clerk of the County, acting as a joint board. No real or personal property shall be acquired jointly by the parties as a result of this Agreement. To the extent that a party acquires, holds, and disposes of any real or personal property for use in the joint or cooperative undertaking contemplated by this Agreement, such party shall do so in the same manner that it deals with other property of such party.
10. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts by the City and the County.
11. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of Utah both as to interpretation and performance.
12. This Agreement embodies the entire agreement between the parties and shall not be altered except in writing signed by both parties.
