

Board Appointments – Human Rights Commission – Cristy Gleave

INTRODUCTION:

Mayor Anderson is recommending that Cristy Gleave, a resident of District 4, to serve a term through December 27, 2007. Ms. Gleave will be replacing Francisca Blanc who has resigned.

APPLICANT INFORMATION:

Cristy Gleave is Vice-President for Digital Financial Group (Merchant Processing). Ms. Gleave has been involved in civil rights since 1999. She feels her passion, heart and endurance will help make Utah a better place for her son to grow up and be treated equal. She is serving on the Equality Utah's Member Committee and is a member of the Human Rights Commission Federal Club.

RESPONSE DEADLINE:

If you have any objection to this re-appointment, please let Vicki know by 5:00 p.m. on Tuesday May 29, 2007.

CURRENT COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD:

According to City ordinance, the Human Rights Commission shall consist of nine members, one representative from each Council District and two from the community who will represent the diversity of the city. All members must be Salt Lake City residents and at least 18 years of age; each will serve a four-year term. Adrian Comollo, District 3; Raymond Gunn, District 6; Orin Howell, District 1; Walter Jones, District 3; Patrick Leary, District 5; Barbara Lovejoy, District 7; Jennifer Mayer-Glenn, District 5; and Silveinusi Niu, District 2.

BOARD STRUCTURE:

According to City ordinance, the Human Rights Commission makes recommendations to the Mayor and City Council regarding educational resources on issues of discrimination and equal treatment. Commissioners will review complaints of discrimination involving city departments or services to identify possible sources. Reviews legislation, policies or other action by the city designed to further eliminate prejudice and discrimination. Reviews pending legislation, policy changes or other city action that may impact human rights. Works in partnership to foster positive inter-group relations through educational programs.