

Motion Sheet

Date: April 22, 2010

Subject: Petition No. PLNPCM2009-00021 - adjusting the boundaries and zoning classification of certain historic districts.

- The boundary adjustment would follow property lines instead of a specific distance from the center of a street.
- The intent is to clarify that certain lots in or adjacent to Historic Overlay Zoning Districts are within a historic district and zoned accordingly.
- This action would also adjust the boundary of the South Temple Historic District to include properties located at 31, 32, 33, and 34 Haxton Place (940 East South Temple St.) and apply the Historic District Overlay zoning classification.

1. ["I move that the Council"] Refer this item to a future Council meeting.
 2. ["I move that the Council"] Adopt an ordinance amending the City Zoning Map to adjust existing Historic Overlay Zoning District boundaries.
 3. ["I move that the Council"] Not adopt an ordinance amending the City Zoning Map to adjust existing Historic Overlay zoning district boundaries.

RECOMMENDATION: That the City Council hold a briefing and schedule a Public Hearing

DOCUMENT TYPE: Ordinance

BUDGET IMPACT: None

DISCUSSION:

Issue Origin: When the City created the H Historic Preservation Overlay Zoning District, and subsequently amended it over the years, legal descriptions were used to describe the boundaries of the district. Typically, the legal descriptions prescribed a specific distance from the centerline of the street. The result was that the overlay district covered only portions of those properties that were at the boundary of the overlay district, which creates administrative issues because part of a building or property may be within the overlay while other parts of a building or property were not within the overlay. For clarification purposes, the Administration, as well as the Historic Landmark Commission, would like to amend the boundaries so that they follow property lines instead of being a set distance from the center of a street.

In addition, when the South Temple Historic District was formed, it bisected Haxton Place, resulting in four properties on the street being left out of the historic district. To assure the preservation of this portion of the district, the Historic Landmark Commission proposed to change the boundaries to include the entirety of the street. Doing so would add the properties located at 31, 32, 33 and 34 Haxton Place to the South Temple Historic District.

Analysis: With the exception of the properties on Haxton Place, the proposed boundary adjustment does not add any new properties to any of the existing historic districts in the City. It simply clarifies that a property is wholly within the boundaries of the overlay district. Adding the properties on Haxton Place ensures the preservation of the entire street, not just those few properties that are currently within the South Temple Historic District.

The proposed map amendment is generally consistent with the considerations for zoning map amendments found in zoning ordinance 21A.50.050. During the public process, there was no opposition to the proposed map amendment, mainly due to the fact the property owners on Haxton Place supported the proposal and other effected property owners are already subject to the regulations within the H Historic Preservation Overlay zoning district. Other City Departments were provided an opportunity to review the proposal, and no issues or concerns were raised during that review period.

Master Plan Considerations: Generally, the City's adopted master plans support preserving the City's historic structures and neighborhoods. The map amendment, with the exception of the Haxton Place properties, does not add or remove properties from an established district but rather clarifies the administration of the overlay district. Exhibit 5, Planning Staff Report, identifies how the proposed map amendment conforms to the adopted policies of the City.

PUBLIC PROCESS:

An open house was held on August 28, 2008. Notice of the open house was sent to Community Council Chairs and those whose names are on the Planning Division list serve. Notice was also posted on the City's website and in a newsletter sent to all owners of property with local historic designation, as well as those owners of property on Haxton Place not currently designated.

The proposal was reviewed by the Historic Landmark Commission on March 4, 2009. The public comments received during the Commission hearing were supportive of the proposed amendment. Of note were the Haxton Place property owners, who supported being added to the South Temple Historic District. The Historic Landmark Commission made a unanimous recommendation to the Planning Commission indicating their support for the proposed changes.

The matter was initially heard by the Planning Commission on May 13, 2009. The Planning Commission heard public comment similar to those heard by the Historic Landmark Commission. However, this public hearing was not properly noticed because notice of the public hearing was not published in a local newspaper of general circulation. On December 9, 2009, the Planning Commission held a new public hearing, which was properly noticed in a local newspaper, on the Planning Division web site, the State of Utah's public hearing web site and by direct mail to all affected property owners and those living within 450 feet of an affected property. In addition, notice of the public hearing was sent on the Planning Division's list serve, which includes all community councils. No public comments were received during the November public hearing and the Planning Commission raised no issues. The Planning Commission voted unanimously to transmit a positive recommendation to amend the historic district boundaries to the City Council.

RELEVANT ORDINANCES:

Amendments to the Zoning Ordinance and Maps are authorized under Section 21A.50 of the Salt Lake City Zoning Ordinance, as detailed in Section 21A.50.050: "A decision to amend the text of this title or the zoning map by general amendment is a matter committed to the legislative discretion of the City Council and is not controlled by any one standard." It does, however, list five standards, which should be analyzed prior to rezoning property (Section 21A.50.050 A-E). The five standards are discussed in detail starting on page 3 of the Planning Commission Staff Report (see Attachment 5B).

Sections 10-9a-204 and 205 of the Utah Code Title 10, Chapter 9a, Municipal Land Use, Development and Management Act regulate the requirements for noticing a general plan amendment and land use ordinance amendment. The petitions for zoning and Master Plan amendment were published in the newspaper on November 29, 2009 meeting State Code noticing requirements.

Re: Petition PLNPCM2009-00021 H Historic Overlay Zoning District
Boundary Adjustment

On May 13, 2009 the Planning Commission reviewed the above referenced petition to amend the existing boundaries for the local historic districts that are subject to the H Historic Preservation Overlay District regulations. At that meeting the Planning Commission adopted a motion to send a favorable recommendation to the City Council to amend the overlay district boundaries. Because this action is a zoning map amendment, public notice is required to be given in a newspaper of general circulation in addition to direct mail notification. The May 13, 2009 public hearing was not noticed in the newspaper. In order to be compliant with State and City noticing requirements, the matter is required to be reheard after property notification.

For the December Planning Commission Public Hearing, proper notification, including direct mail and posting in the newspaper, was given for this item. The content of the attached staff report and the Planning Division recommendation has not changed. Attached is the staff report that was published for the May 13, 2009 Planning Commission Public Hearing.

REQUEST

The Historic Landmark Commission recommends reconsideration of the boundaries of the historic districts to provide for clarity by ensuring the entire parcel is shown to be within the historic district.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

Based on the comments, analysis and findings of fact listed in the staff report, staff recommends the Planning Commission transmit a favorable recommendation to the City Council to adopt the proposed map amendments.

Background/ Project Description

The City adopted a comprehensive rewrite of the Zoning Ordinance and adopted a completely new Zoning Map in April 1995. At that time, it was understood that adjustments to the Zoning Ordinance and Zoning Map would be necessary once it had been implemented, and people had an opportunity to work with it.

When the historic districts were formed, the legal descriptions did not follow lot lines, but instead laid lines a certain number of feet from the central line of the street. The result is that many lots are bisected by the historic district boundary, which could mean that part of a building or property is in a district and part is not, or that part of a property is in one district and part is in another. For clarification purposes, the Historic Landmark Commission is recommending that the boundary lines of local districts follow lot lines.

In addition, when the South Temple Historic District was formed, it cut a mid-block street, Haxton Place, in two. As a result, four properties that face this street were excluded from the Historic District. To assure the preservation of this portion of the district, the Historic Landmark Commission recommends changing the boundaries to include the entirety of this dead end street. The properties that would be affected by this change are 31, 32, 33 and 34 Haxton Place. Please see Attachment A.

Comments

Public Comments

An Open House was held on August 28, 2008. Notice of the Open House was sent to Community Council chairs and those whose names are on the Planning Division's List serve. Notice was also posted on the City's website and in a newsletter sent to all owners of property with local historic designation and those on Haxton Place. The attendants were in favor of the project. Please see attachment C.

The owners of property on Haxton Place, that is not already designated, were contacted via phone as well as notified of the Open House. All were in support of the designation.

City Department Comments

Staff sent information regarding the proposed text changes to applicable City Departments. Department responses are included in Attachment B. No substantive issues or concerns were raised through department review of the proposed text amendments.

Historic Landmark Commission Comments:

The Historic Landmark Commission held a public hearing on the matter on April 1, 2009. They unanimously approved recommending the proposed Zoning Map Amendment. See public comments from that meeting on attachment C.

21A.50.050 Standards for General Amendments

A decision to amend the text of this title or the zoning map by general amendment is a matter committed to the legislative discretion of the city council and is not controlled by any one standard. However, in making its decision concerning a proposed amendment, the city council should consider the following factors:

A. Whether the proposed amendment is consistent with the purposes, goals, objectives, and policies of the adopted general plan of Salt Lake City;

Analysis: The community master plans land use policies generally state that historic structures and neighborhoods should be preserved. Guiding Principle 4 of the Salt Lake City Planning Division Strategic Plan states: "Provide the Highest Level of Professional Planning Service. The Planning Division will focus its efforts and resources to provide the City with the highest level of professional planning services. The Division will focus on Plans that reflect the values of the citizens and their neighborhoods.

- Goal: Ensure that all Community Master Plans identify, balance and advance the needs of the City and our neighborhoods.
- Goal: Base planning decisions on adopted policies and regulations
- Goal: Encourage livable, sustainable development."

The map amendment, with the exception of 31, 32, 33 and 34 Haxton Place does not add or remove properties from the established historic districts, but provides clarification that each property is included in the district in whole, rather than part. The addition of the Haxton Place properties is consistent with this standard since it is the goal of master plans to preserve historic structures and this alteration will allow for the preservation of the entire area of Haxton Place rather than just half the street.

Finding: The proposed map amendment provides additional refinement of the zoning regulations of the City's code by providing corrections, clarification and consistency within existing regulations. The proposed alterations are consistent with the City's land use policies.

B. Whether the proposed amendment is harmonious with the overall character of existing development in the immediate vicinity of the subject property;

Analysis: The proposed amendments will not alter the existing character of the established districts. Local design review is a key tool in preserving neighborhood character and local history.

Finding: The proposed map amendment does not require changes to the existing development in the City and therefore meets this standard. The valuable tool of design review will remain and include full properties rather than just portions of properties. Clear boundaries will lessen confusion as to which portions of a property are designated and which are not, which was not the original intent of the designation.

C. The extent to which the proposed amendment will adversely affect adjacent properties;

Analysis: The proposed amendment will not require alterations to the existing character of the established districts. The Map Amendments clarify district boundaries and will not affect adjacent properties. With the exception of four properties located on Haxton Place, properties will not be designated that have not already been designated.

Finding: The proposed map amendment does not require changes and therefore will not affect adjacent properties.

D. Whether the proposed amendment is consistent with the provisions of any applicable overlay zoning districts which may impose additional standards; and Analysis: The proposed map amendment does not specifically relate, nor impact provisions of any adopted overlay zone. The Map Amendments are to the Historic Overlay boundaries. The proposed changes clarify how the Overlay standards affect particular lots. Section 21A.34.020 subsection D.2 relates to the adjustment of historic district boundaries:

2. Criteria For Adjusting The Boundaries Of An H Historic Preservation Overlay District: Criteria for adjusting the boundaries of an H historic preservation overlay district are as follows:

- a. The properties have ceased to meet the criteria for inclusion within an H historic preservation overlay district because the qualities which caused them to be originally included have been lost or destroyed, or such qualities were lost subsequent to the historic landmark commission recommendation and adoption of the district;
- b. Additional information indicates that the properties do not comply with the criteria for selection of the H historic preservation overlay district as outlined in subsection C2 of this section; or
- c. Additional information indicates that the inclusion of additional properties would better convey the historical and architectural integrity of the H historic preservation overlay district, provided they meet the standards outlined in subsection C2 of this section.

Finding: The proposed map amendment is consistent with the provisions of all applicable overlay zoning districts that may impose additional standards. The adjustment will not include new properties or exclude existing properties; with the exception of four properties on Haxton Place, therefore, the standards of section 21A.34.020D.2 do not apply to the majority of the boundary adjustments. Inclusion of the Haxton Place properties meets subsection 2.c. of section 21A.34.020.D., since the addition of the properties will help to preserve the full character of this street, rather than just a portion. Three of the four properties are listed as “significant” in the 1978 survey of the area. They are 32, 34 and 35 Haxton Place. Thirty-one Haxton Place is listed as “contributing”. Please see attachment E.

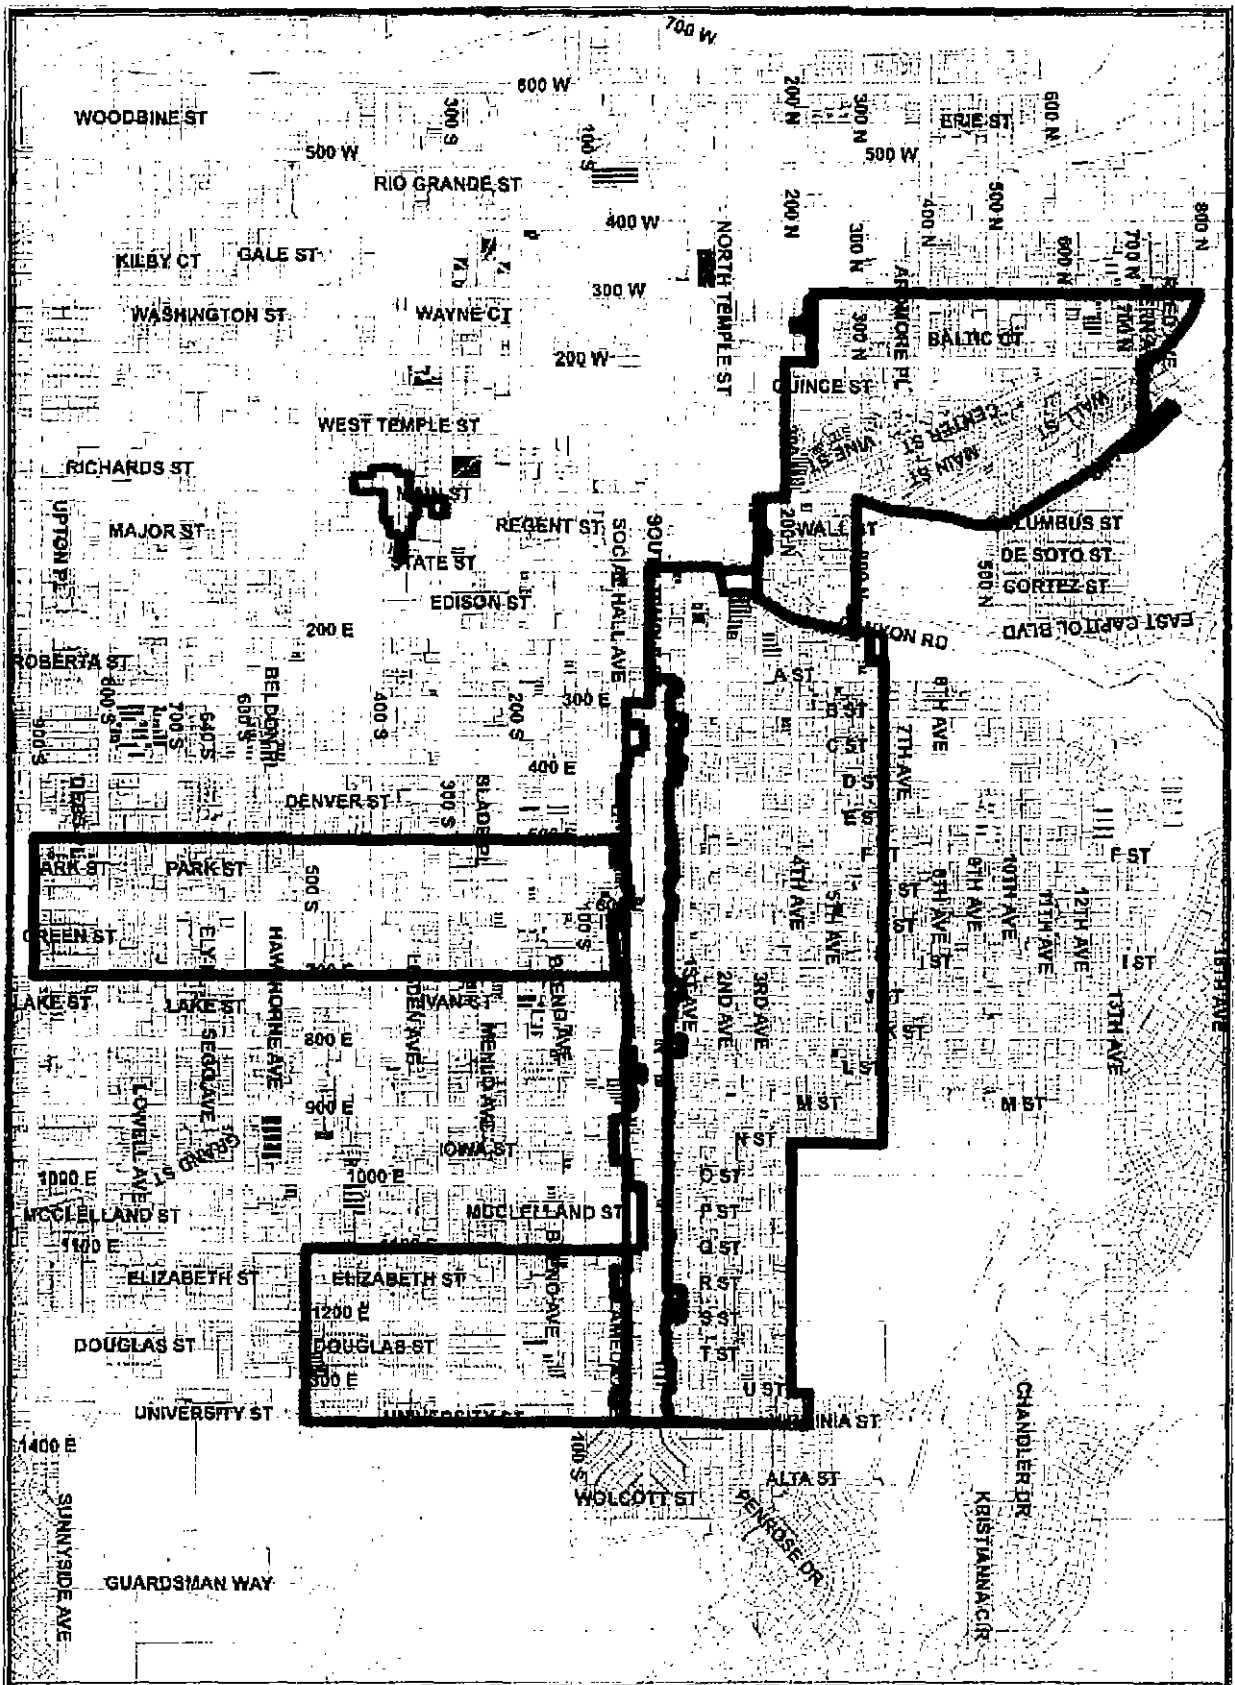

E. The adequacy of public facilities and services intended to serve the subject property, including but not limited to roadways, parks and recreational facilities, police and fire protection, schools, storm water drainage systems, water supplies, and wastewater and refuse collection.

Analysis: The proposed map amendment does not relate to provisions governing public facilities and services.

Finding: According to Department Comments, there is no indication that there will be problems with facilities and services.

Written Public Comments from Open House

A long overdue project. Also clarify these boundaries with Landmark Sites. Note these changes with county recorder's office. (Currently properties within districts have notice recorded on title—need to make sure this list is accurate.) Also remove Newhouse Hotel site from Exchange Place. Building demolished subsequent to demolition or add other properties on block.

Strong agreement. This is the method by which properties should be included in the districts in order to include the entire historic district boundary.

Phone Comments from Haxton Place Property Owners

Since there were only four property owners whose whole properties would be included as a result of this map amendment and none attended the open house, staff called each owner to explain the project and answer questions.

Peter Goldman, 32 Haxton Place

Supports the change. Thought it was already designated and followed the design guidelines several years ago when the property was restored.

Eugenia Riet, 35 Haxton Place

Supports the change. Thought it was already designated and followed the design guidelines several years ago when the property was restored.

Jennifer Thorley, 31 Haxton Place

Supports the change.

Scott and Peggy Hansen, 34 Haxton Place

Supports the change. Thought it was already designated and followed the design guidelines several years ago when the property was restored.

Cindy Cromer at Historic Landmark Commission, 3/4/09

Pleased to see the proposed change regarding the inclusion of the Haxton Place properties. Look forward to it.

Petition PLNHLC2009-00021 – Boundary Adjustment, Map Amendment 6:21:16 PM
6 Salt Lake City Historic Landmark Commission Meeting March 4, 2009

A request by the Planning Commission for the Historic Landmark Commission to reconsider the boundaries of historic districts for clarification purposes. The project is a city-wide project. (Staff contact: Robin Zeigler, 535-7758, robin.zeigler@slcgov.com)

Staff Presentation 6:21:28 PM

Ms. Zeigler noted that the proposed map amendment is essentially a clean up of district lines that left properties with split overlay zoning. She explained that when the historic districts were created, the lines were drawn a certain number of feet from the center of the street. While this created a tidy map, some properties that were intended to be included in the district were divided. She stated that the proposed amendment changes boundary lines to follow lot lines. All properties that are currently in a district will remain in the district, and, with a single exception, every property that is currently outside a district remains outside. She clarified that no property rights are being altered except those of four properties on Haxton Place.

Ms. Zeigler referenced the map included in the staff report, noting that Haxton Place is a dead end street. Four properties at the end of Haxton Place were not included in the historic district boundaries, consequently failing to adequately preserve the historic character of the street. She stated that the proposed amendment will incorporate those four properties into the historic district. Ms. Zeigler noted that the owners of these four properties were personally contacted by staff and had confirmed that they thought their lots were already part of the district; they have followed the guidelines on work completed on their properties. In response to an inquiry by Vice Chairperson Lloyd, Ms. Zeigler noted that all boundary properties had been verified with the original districting information and that the proposed changes comply with the original intent while resolving the unintended bisection of lots.

Questions by the Commission 6:24:11 PM

None

Public Comments 6:24:17 PM

Ms. Cromer expressed pleasure at seeing the proposed changes on Haxton Place. She noted that the 900 East property shown on the map in green with a blue line through it is a medical clinic; the Marianne Apartments around the corner are historic and tie in with the medical clinic parking. She stated that the building on the west corner of 900 East South Temple is very old despite its appearance because it has been progressively remodeled. Ms. Cromer inquired whether the proposal would have to go through a Planning Commission process. Mr. Paterson confirmed that the Historic Landmark Commission would make a recommendation to the Planning Commission, which would hold another public hearing before making a recommendation to the City Council, which has final decision-making authority.

Executive Session 6:26:17 PM

Chairperson Fitzsimmons reiterated that the request is for the Historic Landmark Commission to forward a positive recommendation to the Planning Commission for a recommendation to the City Council.

MOTION 6:26:39 PM

Commissioner Funk moved that in the case of Petition PLNHLC2009-00021 – Boundary Adjustment, Map Amendment the Historic Landmark Commission forward a positive recommendation to the Planning Commission to make a positive recommendation to the City Council to adopt the proposed map amendments as outlined in the staff report.

Commissioner Norie seconded the motion.

All voted in favor; the motion carried unanimously.

REQUEST

The Planning Commission is requesting a reconsideration of the boundaries of the historic districts to provide for clarity.

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

Based on the comments, analysis and findings of fact listed in the staff report, Planning Staff recommends the Historic Landmark Commission transmit a favorable recommendation to the Planning Commission for a recommendation to the City Council to adopt the proposed map amendments.

Background/ Project Description

The City adopted a comprehensive Zoning Ordinance in April 1995. At that time, it was understood that adjustments to the Zoning Ordinance would be necessary once it had been implemented, and people had an opportunity to work with it.

When the historic districts were formed the legal descriptions did not follow lot lines but instead laid lines a certain number of feet from the central line of the street. The result is that many lots are bisected by the historic district boundary, which could mean that part of a building or property is in a district and part is not or that part of a property is in one district and part is in another. For clarification purposes, the Historic Landmark Commission would like to have all boundary lines follow lot lines.

In addition, when the South Temple historic district was formed it cut a mid-block street, Haxton Place, in two. As a result, four properties that face this street were excluded from the historic district. To assure the preservation of this portion of the district, the Historic Landmark Commission proposed to change the boundaries to include the entirety of this dead end street. The properties that would be affected by this change are 31, 32, 33 and 34 Haxton Place. Please see map below.

Public Comments

An Open House was held on August 28, 2008. Notice of the Open House was sent to Community Council chairs and those whose names are on the Planning Divisions List serve. Notice was also posted on the City's website and in a newsletter sent to all owners of property with local historic designation. Please see attachment C.

City Department Comments:

Staff sent information regarding the proposed text changes to applicable City Departments. Department responses are included in Attachment B. No issues or concerns were raised through department review of the proposed text amendments.

21A.50.050 Standards for general amendments

A decision to amend the text of this title or the zoning map by general amendment is a matter committed to the legislative discretion of the city council and is not controlled by any one standard. However, in making its decision concerning a proposed amendment, the city council should consider the following factors:

A. Whether the proposed amendment is consistent with the purposes, goals, objectives, and policies of the adopted general plan of Salt Lake City;

Analysis: The community master plans land use policies generally state that historic structures and neighborhoods should be preserved.

The map amendment, with the exception of 31, 32, 33 and 34 Haxton Place does not add or remove properties from the established historic districts but provides clarification that each property is included in the district in whole, rather than part. The addition of the Haxton Place properties is consistent with this standard since it is the goal of master plans to preserve historic structures and this alteration will allow for the preservation of the entire area of Haxton Place rather than just half the street.

Finding: The proposed map amendment provide additional refinement of the zoning regulations of the City's code by providing corrections, clarification and consistency within existing regulations. The proposed alterations are consistent with the City's land use policies.

B. Whether the proposed amendment is harmonious with the overall character of existing development in the immediate vicinity of the subject property;

Analysis: The proposed amendment will not require alterations to the existing character of the established districts.

Finding: The proposed map amendment does not require changes to the existing development in the City and therefore meets this standard.

C. The extent to which the proposed amendment will adversely affect adjacent properties;

Analysis: The proposed amendment will not require alterations to the existing character of the established districts.

Finding: The proposed map amendment does not require changes and therefore will not affect adjacent properties.

D. Whether the proposed amendment is consistent with the provisions of any applicable overlay zoning districts which may impose additional standards; and Analysis: The proposed text amendments do not specifically relate, nor impact provisions of any adopted overlay zone.

Finding: The proposed text amendments are consistent with the provisions of all applicable overlay zoning districts that may impose additional standards.

E. The adequacy of public facilities and services intended to serve the subject property, including but not limited to roadways, parks and recreational facilities, police and fire protection, schools, storm water drainage systems, water supplies, and wastewater and refuse collection.

Analysis: The proposed map amendment does not relate to provisions governing public facilities and services.

Finding: The proposed map amendment should not impact the adequacy of public facilities and/or services.

Written Public Comments from Open House

A long overdue project. Also clarify these boundaries with Landmark Sites. Note these changes with county recorder's office. (Currently properties within districts have notice recorded on title—need to make sure this list is accurate.) Also remove Newhouse Hotel site from Exchange Place. Building demolished subsequent to demolition or add other properties on block.

Strong agreement. This is the method by which properties should be included in the districts in order to include the entire historic district boundary.

Phone Comments from Haxton Place Property Owners

Since there were only four property owners whose whole properties would be included as a result of this map amendment and none attended the open house, staff called each owner to explain the project and answer questions.

Peter Goldman, 32 Haxton Place

Supports the change. Thought it was already designated and followed the design guidelines several years ago when the property was restored.

Eugenia Riet, 35 Haxton Place

Supports the change. Thought it was already designated and followed the design guidelines several years ago when the property was restored.

Jennifer Thorley, 31 Haxton Place

HISTORY

This house is significant as the home of Clifford Rowe Pearsall, the creator and author of the nations first newspaper editorial-advertising column. His column appeared in the Salt Lake Tribune in the 1940's. The column dealt with a variety of subjects ranging from hobbies to national and international problems.

Clifford R. Pearsall was born in Oswego County, New York in 1868. When he was eight years old his family moved to Huntley, Illinois. He was educated in Huntley and was employed by a jeweler after high school. A few years later he moved to Montana to work for the Leyson Jewelry Company. From Montana he was sent to Salt Lake City to close a Leyson branch. In Salt Lake he reversed the stores poor business trend and was made a manager of the store. In 1908 he became Leysons partner, thus changing the firms name to Leyson/Pearsall Jewlers. In 1916 he gained sole title to the store.

Pearsall was a sportsman and club activist. He was president of the Alta Club for three successive terms, and a founder of the Salt Lake Country Club. In 1895 he married Ella J. Davidson. Mr. Pearsall lived in this house until his death in 1948. In 1953 Edward N. Berg, the current owner acquired the house.

This house is owned by Viven P. Strange, one of Utah's leading mining engineers.

It was originally owned by Stanley Collamore Sears. He was born in Boston in 1877, an ancestor of the Sears family who sailed from England in 1630. He was educated at M.I.T. and received a degree in mining. In 1912 he came to Utah to serve as general manager of the Utah-Apex Mining Company. He belonged to many professional societies in the United States and Mexico. In 1924 Sears moved to Washington, D. C. and sold the house to Viven P. Strange.

Strange was born in New Brunswick, Canada, in 1871. He was well-known in Salt Lake as a contractor and mining engineer. At one time he was one of the largest stockholders in the Combined Metals Reduction Company. He had also directed diamond drilling operations in California. He was one of the discoverers of the Rio Tinto Copper Mine, one of Nevada's largest copper producers. Strange lived in this house until his death in 1952. The current owner acquired the property in 1970.

This [redacted] feet and as an example of the Colonial Revival style.

Haxton Place is a street which runs south from East South Temple Street between 900 East and 1000 East. Dr. James T. Keith and Thomas G. Griffin invested in this property and created a beautiful and private residential street here. In 1909 James T. and Kathryn Blythe Keith were the owners of the Haxton Place subdivision. In 1910 Keith and Griffin built the first houses here, 34 and 35 Haxton Place. Mr. Griffin was born in England and he modeled this street after Haxton Place in London. This street became a replica of the original Haxton Place in England.

Dr. Keith was born in Vienna, Illinois in 1868, the son of T. E. and Mary E. Flack-Keith. Dr. Keith received a degree from Kansas City Dental College in Missouri. He practiced in Wyoming before moving to Salt Lake City. In Salt Lake City he invested in real estate and became widely known in the building industry. The Keith Apartments on East South Temple were his first creation. He also built the Richmond Apartments, now the Sherrill Hotel Apartments on East North Temple Street, developed Haxton Place and managed the Hotel Investment Company.

Although the changes in the house numbers on Haxton Place make it appear as if Keith lived in a number of houses on that street, he lived in the house on lot number 2, now known as 34 Haxton Place. Keith retired from dentistry to manage his properties. He moved to Los Angeles in 1942. He died there in May, 1954.

Throughout the 1920's the house was owned by Thomas W. Boyer. Next it was owned by Joseph B. Whitehall. The current owner recently acquired the property.

This was one of the first houses to be built on this unique street. The street was created by James T. Keith and Thomas G. Griffin to resemble a street in London with the same name. This house and this street are significant in this district because they have remained basically unchanged in design and use since their creation.

Griffin was born in England in 1874. He came to Salt Lake City and joined with the real estate investor, James T. Keith in the design of this street. Keith and Griffin wanted to insure that only "first class" residences would be built on this street. When the Haxton Place subdivision was created in 1909 these men placed these restrictive covenants on the street; only private residences costing more than $5,000 were permitted, houses had to be between two and three stories high, building had to be 20 feet from the front street line. outbuildings could not face Haxton Place, and if a house were sold to a person of Chinese or African descent it would automatically revert back to the original owner. Since Keith owned all the land on which the street was developed these covenants were permitted.

Besides his real estate holdings Griffin was the president of the National Tea Import Company. He was active in sports and built Haxton Place with a tennis court for the exclusive use of the residences. The court was directly south of this house. The court's land was purchased by the LDS Church in 1958.

When the restrictive covenants expired in 1930 Griffin moved from his home here. It was briefly owned by Albert E. Kipp in the 1930's. In 1937 it was purchased by John F. Dugan. In 1969 the present owners acquired the house from Dugan.

SUBJECT: Request to initiate petition to correct Local Historic District boundary lines

The Historic Landmark Commission is requesting to initiate a petition to correct boundary lines for the following historic districts: The Avenues, South Temple, University, Capitol Hill and Central City Local Historic Districts. Changes to the boundaries of local historic districts are processed as zoning map amendments.

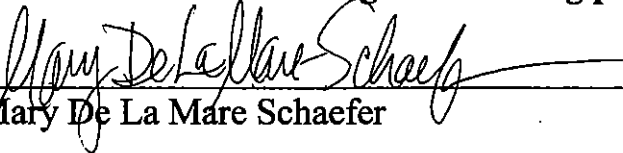

When these districts were formed the legal descriptions did not follow lot lines but instead laid lines a certain number of feet from the central line of the street. The result is that many lots are bisected by the historic district boundary, which could mean that part of a building or property is in a district and part is not. For clarification purposes, the Historic Landmark Commission would like to have all boundary lines follow lot lines. The large attached map and database show properties that might be affected by this change.

In addition, when the South Temple historic district was formed it cut a mid-block street, Haxton Place, in two. As a result, four properties that face this street were excluded from the historic district. To assure the preservation of this district, the Historic Landmark Commission proposed to change the boundaries to include the entirety of this street. The properties that would be affected by this change are 31, 32, 33 and 34 Haxton Place. Please see map below. (The blue shading shows the historic district.)
