Councilmember Simonsen said a number of questions had been raised about the constitutionality of the ordinance. He said he felt this was an enforcement issue, not a legislative issue.

Councilmember Love asked what was being suggested for the legislative intent. Councilmember Simonsen said the intent was to work with stake holders, downtown merchants and law enforcement to develop an enforcement provision.

7:56:48 PM Councilmember Garrott said he thought this action would inflame animosity in the community and the City already had ordinances in place to address aggressive panhandling. He said rather than punitive action, he felt more community cooperation and dialog was needed to address spacing requirements which prohibited panhandling near ATMs, restaurants, churches, etc.

7:58:09 PM Councilmember Christensen said even though the ordinance might not be ready for passage, many groups had provided input and felt starting the process over would not necessarily solve the problem.

He said the Administration had vetted the proposal carefully concerning time, place and manner and did not fully believe statements claiming the ordinance would not hold up in court. He said he did not know whether he supported the proposal but thought it might be improved through additional discussions.

8:03:23 PM Councilmember Turner said the Council was sympathetic of the problems and only wanted the best for the residents and businesses. He said a lot of services were available in the City and encouraged people to take advantage of them. He said aggressive panhandling occurring in inappropriate places was the problem, not passive panhandling. He said a lot of people came to the capitol city and needed a friendly safe place to visit. He said he thought through further discussion the proposal could be improved to make the City a better place.

8:06:24 PM Councilmember Simonsen said he felt this was an enforcement/education issue and the primary solution was to identify and connect City and community resources to address the problem rather than pursuing further legislation.

Councilmember Penfold called for the question on the substitute motion to close the hearing and deny the ordinance. A roll call vote was taken. Council Members Christensen, Turner, Penfold and Martin voted nay. Council Members Love, Garrott and Simonsen voted aye.
